Subject: impolite interviewers

With the greatest respect Mr. Premier, it is rather upsetting for us to watch interviews such as the one for "this hour CBC" that you granted (clip attached).

This man is a Bob Rae with absolutely no idea as to whom he is addressing and in the presence of. He is condescending even to the average man on the street, let alone to the emperor himself.

We'd like such Canadians made aware of their place on the lot, which is where the cars are parked and not indoors where great humanness flourishes in the persona of Mr. David R. Peterson, the greatest political intellect this country has known and a genuine mind of the very greatness of what is known to the best of us as "British".

Not its rejects.

Respectfully

Michael C
